A69 (Newcastle/Carlisle): at big Hexham roundabout take exit towards Hexham town centre. Go over river bridge, straight over the first mini roundabout and then over railway bridge to (second) mini roundabout – take first exit signed Hospital / Station / Blanchlands. Pass Railway Station on your left and follow road around to next mini roundabout – turn right (County Hotel is on your left). Continue for about 200 yards past the bus station on your left and take the next tight left (Tap and Spile pub on the corner) signposted Blanchlands / Slaley.

Proceed about half a mile and take a right fork for HGV to Slaley called 'Dipton Mill Road'. Continue up the hill for ~1 mile until you reach the top of the hill and start going down the other side ~ 0.5 mile. Keep an eye out for a sign on your left warning 'Hidden Dip', directly opposite the sign take the turn right onto the lane towards Peterel Fields. Take the next left towards the converted farm buildings and then turn right just before the buildings – drive along and park. The office is on the corner with the sailing boat in the window.
